

THE MASC MESS

JESUS PAVAN

No matter where you go or look, all these shows seem to be dominated by masculine bodies + men. Is this space not welcoming to women and Femmes?

This isn't just the crowds either. Why is it that most bands are all men? Very rarely is there a Femme in a band, let alone an all Femme band.

Am I a part of this problem? Do I take up too much space in this scene?

Image References:

All images were edited by me using GoArt.

The Casualties perform a backyard show in South-Central Los Angeles. By Angela Boatwright

<http://www.latimes.com/entertainment/music/la-et-los-punks-movie-20160525-snap-story.html>

Image of the London band High-Vis By: Unkown

<https://www.kerrang.com/the-news/london-post-punk-band-high-vis-released-a-new-7inch/>

Image of the UK band Basement by Tom Monahan

<http://www.punksinvegas.com/interview-basement/>