

1945, BAVARIA, A FAMILY
GERMANY, OF HUNGARIAN REFUGEES
BOXCAR SITE IN A TRAIN:

We were traveling in a boxcar, just sitting on the floor

This was DECEMBER, and really cold.
We needed fuel for the little stove.

So they sent the kids to fetch some COAL.
We did it by moon light

It was a very scary thing.
We could have been arrested.
But we found a few bricks of coal, managed to light a fire,
and it kept us warm.

The American government took over Germany and decided to send all the refugees back.

It was a

DISMAL

place, Hungary in 1946
